

Technology Department

Circular No: MSEI/IT/5140/2017

May 15, 2017

In view of the global Ransomware attack 'Wannacry', 'CERT-In has issued an advisory for detection and prevention of Wannacry / WannaCrypt Ransomware. (CERT-In Advisory CIAD-2017-0024 Wannacry / WannaCrypt Ransomware : CRITICAL ALERT Original Issue Date: May 13, 2017)

The Advisory is available on the website of CERT-In (<http://www.cert-in.org.in>). A copy of the same attached as Annexure - I . The advisory has also been published on the Cyber Swachhta Kendra website (http://www.cyberswachhtakendra.gov.in/alerts/wannacry_ransomware.html).

Please also note that CERT-In had issued a vulnerability note (CERT-In Vulnerability Note CIVN-2017-0032 Multiple vulnerabilities in Windows SMB Original Issue Date: March 15, 2017) on its website (<http://www.cert-in.org.in>) with a Severity Rating of HIGH on March 15, 2017 for possible remote exploitation of this vulnerability and to apply the patch released by Microsoft for the same as mentioned in Microsoft Security Bulletin MS17010 (attached as Annexure - II). A copy of the Vulnerability Note is attached as Annexure - III

Trading Members / Stock Brokers are advised to take suitable necessary actions / measures in view of the aforementioned Advisory and Vulnerability Note of CERT-In. Trading Members / Stock Brokers may also bring the aforementioned Advisory and Vulnerability Note of CERT-In to the notice of their Sub Brokers / Clients.

For and on behalf of
Metropolitan Stock Exchange of India Limited

Kundan Zamvar
Chief Information Security Officer

Metropolitan Stock Exchange of India Limited

(Formerly known as MCX Stock Exchange Ltd.)