INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF MORNING GLORY LEASING AND FINANCE LIMITED

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of MORNING GLORY LEASING & FINANCE LIMITED(“the Company”), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2016, the Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The company' s Board of directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134 (5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (“ the Act”) with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules,2014. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143 (10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the Company has in place and adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2016 and its loss and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

MORNING GLORY LEASING & FINANCE LIMITED

NOTE -1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES ON ACCOUNTS

A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

i. Basis of preparation of Financial Statements

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (' Act ') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 the provisions of the Act (to the extent notified), guidelines issued by Reserve Bank of India and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or are vision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

ii. Revenue Recognition

Expenses & income considered payable and receivable respectively are accounted for on accrual basis.

iii. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses for that year. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognized prospectively in current and future periods.

iv. Fixed Assets

There is no Fixed Asset.

v. Income from stock of Investments & Loans

Income from stock of investments in interest bearing securities and loans & advances is accounted for on accrual basis. Dividend income from stock of investments in shares is recognized accruing as income of that year in which dividend is declared by the companies in their respective 32nd Annual General Meetings.

vi. Investments

Investments Non Current/Long Term are stated at historical cost. The market value of quoted investments is also disclosed in the Balance Sheet. Cost is inclusive of transfer expenses if any and at the time of sale cost is determined on the basis of purchase price paid for each share identified through its distinctive no(s), in case of shares held in physical form and FIFO basis in case of shares held in dematerialize form.

vii. Taxation

Tax expenses for the year comprises of Current tax and deferred tax charge or credit. The deferred Tax Assets and deferred Tax Liabilities are calculated by applying tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the Balance Sheet date. Deferred Tax asset arising mainly on account of brought forward losses and unabsorbed depreciation under tax law are recognized only if there is virtual certainty of its realization. Other deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent there is a reasonable certainty of realization in future. Deferred Tax Assets / Liabilities are reviewed at each balance sheet date based on development during the year; further future expectations and available case laws to reassess realization/liabilities.

viii. Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liabilities are not provided for and are disclosed by way of notes.
