

MSE starts drive to give incentives to brokers

METROPOLITAN STOCK Exchange of India (MSE) on Thursday said it will reimburse clearing fee paid by its registered brokers to their clearing members, a move which will help reduce the transactional cost for brokers. The incentive scheme is part of a member activation drive announced by the exchange on Wednesday. The drive would provide all infrastructural support to its members, various incentive schemes as well as lowest transaction charges on almost all product contracts.