

Clarification on recent Media Reports on MSE launching a Fund

With reference to certain reports appearing in the media about Metropolitan Stock Exchange' tie-up with Canada-based DTM Global Holdings, a company promoted by the Delamore & Owl (D&O) Group and partners, the Exchange would like to clarify that neither the Exchange nor any of its employees / management personnel has issued any official statement / release / quote on any purported plans of launching a fund for any purpose whatsoever.

The official statement of the company in this regard containing details of the tie-up between the two entities is available on our website under "About Us > Announcement" section. Anything beyond what is mentioned in the note shall be clearly not attributed to the exchange nor does the exchange concur with same.
