- 4.2. All the Key Management Personnel and employees in the conduct of their business shall observe high standards of commercial honour and just and equitable principles of trade.
- 4.3. The conduct of all the Key Management Personnel and employees in business life should be exemplary which will set a standard for members of the Corporation to follow.
- 4.4. Key Management Personnel and employees shall not use their position to do or get favours from the executive or administrative staff of the Corporation, suppliers of the Corporation, members of the Corporation or any listed company at the Corporation.

4.5. Key Management Personnel and employees shall not commit any act which may affect the reputation of the Corporation.

4.6. Key Management Personnel and employees of the Corporation should comply with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to the activities of the Corporation.

5. CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES

5.1. All Employees owe a duty to the Corporation to advance its legitimate interests.

5.2. No Employee shall compete with the Corporation or use its property, information, or position for their personal gain.

5.3. Subject to any agreement between the Corporation and the Employee, all software, technology, systems or other proprietary information developed by an Employee in course of his employment shall be the sole property of the Corporation.

6. INSIDER TRADING

6.1. The Corporation is committed to comply with the requirements of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 as amended from time to time in so far as the same is applicable. No Employee, his immediate relative or anyone who receives unpublished price sensitive Information in contravention of provisions of the said Regulations from him, shall deal in the securities of the Corporation or any other company, if he is in possession of any un-published price-sensitive information about Companies which are listed/traded or proposed to be listed/traded on the Corporation or contracts that are traded on the Corporation. No Employee should disclose unpublished price-sensitive information about any Company listed on the Corporation or contract traded on the Corporation to another person except as allowed under applicable law.

6.2. Any concerns as to whether information would be considered material may be consulted with the Compliance Officer of the Corporation. All Employees are responsible for knowing and abiding by SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 as amended from time to time.

7. DEALINGS IN SECURITIES BY EMPLOYEES

7.1. All dealings in securities shall be for investment purposes and not be of speculative nature. In this regard, securities bought shall not be sold at least for a period of 6 months from its purchase to be considered as being held for investment purposes. This requirement shall also be applicable to Initial Public Offers (IPOs). In case of IPOs the holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

7.2. DISCLOSURES

All Employees shall submit to the Compliance Officer or any official as may be designated by him, the following details in the format given in Annexures hereto, as follows:

- (i) Disclosure of securities holding at the date of joining - Annexure I.
- (ii) Quarterly disclosure of their dealings in securities and those of their immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions, directly or indirectly, to the designated officer, within 30 days at the end of every quarter - Annexure II.
- (iii) Annual statements of all holdings in securities by the Employee and his immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions as on March 31 of every year to be submitted by April 30 of that year - Annexure III.

7.3. DISCLOSURE OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST BY KEY MANAGEMENT PERSONNEL

All the Key Management Personnel shall, upon assuming office and thereafter at the beginning of every financial year during their tenure in office, and also whenever any change in disclosable interest occurs, disclose to the Compliance Officer, their beneficial interests mentioned below in the formats given in - Annexure IV. The Compliance Officer shall place the same before the Ethics Committee/Board of Directors.

- (i) Any fiduciary relationship of self and immediate relatives and directorship/partnership of self and immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions in any broking outfit;
- (ii) shareholding in cases where the shareholding of the Functionary directly or through his immediate relatives exceeds 5% in any listed company or other entity connected to the capital markets; and
- (iii) any other business interests.

The above disclosures shall be made within 30 days of joining, beginning of financial year or of the change, as the case may be.

7.4. PRE-CLEARANCES

All Employees shall obtain the prior written approval of the Compliance Officer before effecting the following securities transactions either for themselves or their immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions:-

- i. Sale of any security, contra trade or reversal of position in any derivatives contract within 6 months from the day of its acquisition necessitated by personal emergency. In such an event the Compliance Officer may waive the holding period after recording in writing his reasons in this regard.

- ii. Where the cumulative value of dealings (buy and sell) in a particular scrip or class of contracts would exceed Rs. 1,00,000/- (rupees one lakhs) on a trading day.

The application under clause (i) above shall be made in the format prescribed in Annexure V and application under clause (ii) above shall be made in the format prescribed in Annexure VI.

An order is to be executed within a week of the pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer, failing which a fresh clearance has to be sought from the Compliance Officer. Where the employee has not traded after securing pre-clearance, the employee shall report the reason for not to trade in Annexure VII.

8. AVOIDANCE OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- 8.1. All Employees of the Corporation shall always act in the interest of the Corporation, and ensure that any business or personal association which he/she may have does not involve a conflict of interest with the operations of the Corporation and his/her role therein.
- 8.2. No Employees shall engage in any business, relationship, assignment or activity which might conflict with the interest of the Corporation.

9. BUSINESS WITH RELATIVES

- 9.1. Employees shall avoid doing Corporation business with relatives or with any person in whom any of his relative is associated or interested. For the purpose of this Code, the term 'relative' includes spouse, children, siblings, parents, grandparents, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, step-relationships and in-laws.

However fair dealings in the interest of the Corporation with the relatives of Employees are not prohibited subject to written disclosure to the relevant functional head or where the employee is a functional head, to his immediate superior.

- 9.2. As a matter of policy, the Corporation discourages employment of relatives of Employees within same departments, particularly in positions that have financial dependence or influence.

10. LEGAL AND REGULATORY COMPLIANCE:

- 10.1. The Corporation expects its Employees to get acquainted with all legal and regulatory stipulations applicable to the Corporation business and act in compliance with such requirements.

- 10.2. Apart from the general legal consequences, the Corporation reserves the right to take disciplinary actions, including wage freeze, suspension, etc., against any Employee who violates any applicable law or regulation or circular or office instructions in performance of his duties.

- 11.1. Every Employee shall always maintain the highest degree of confidentiality and keep as confidential records, documents and other confidential information, which may be known to him or confided in him by any means and he will use such records, documents, and information only in a duly authorized manner in the interest of the Corporation.

11.2. Preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”

Every Employee shall maintain the confidentiality of all Price Sensitive Information and shall not pass on such information directly or indirectly by way of making recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities or otherwise.

11.3. Need to know

Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a ‘need to know’ basis and should be disclosed only to those within the organization who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interests or appearance of misuse of the information.

11.4. Prevention of Misuse of Price Sensitive Information

None of the Employees shall use Price Sensitive Information to buy or sell securities of any sort, whether for their own account, their immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions account, organization/firm’s account or a client’s account.

11.5. Chinese Wall

To prevent the misuse of confidential information the Corporation has adopted a “Chinese Wall” policy which will separate those areas of the organization which routinely have access to unpublished price sensitive information, which every Employee of the Corporation shall follow. Accordingly, the Corporation has restricted access to the Surveillance Room and the Risk Management Room. Any retrieval of such unpublished price sensitive information shall be properly recorded and there shall be an audit trail of the same. The mechanism of retrieving of unpublished price sensitive information and recording the same shall be followed without exception by all the Employees including the Key Management Persons.

11.6. Duty to Safeguard

The duty to safeguard and not disclose confidential information will survive the expiration or termination of employment with the Corporation.

11.7. Prior Permission

At no time an Employee will remove any confidential information from the office without the prior permission of the person to whom he reports.

11.8. Exceptions

Internal documents concerning to the operations and activities, the work, deliberations and decisions of the Boards of Directors, Corporation's management, staff and Committees, should be handled confidentially except where disclosures are required by applicable law or regulation or Circular.

11.9. All Employees are expected to be vigilant in ensuring the appropriate relationship between regulatory and market activities, including the need to preserve the confidentiality of non-public regulatory information.

12. USE OF CORPORATION ASSETS

12.1. No Employee shall use for personal purpose, the work stations, telephones, cellular phones, phone cards, computers, electronic mail systems and other tools provided by the Corporation in course of his employment.

12.2. Every Employee shall use the Corporation assets efficiently so as to avoid waste. Employees shall use the Corporation assets only for purposes authorized by the Corporation.

12.3. The property or information of the Corporation may not be used for personal gain or to engage in outside business activities. The Corporation may at any time monitor the use of Corporation assets, including forms of electronic communications.

13. WHISTLE BLOWER'S POLICY

- 13.1. Every Employee of the Corporation shall promptly report any actual or possible violation of the provisions of this Code any misconduct, act or misdemeanor to the attention of the Compliance Officer, or such other person designated by him.
- 13.2. All complaints will be investigated as promptly and confidentially as possible. Employees shall cooperate with all lawful investigations in respect of any allegations for violations of this Code.
- 13.3. As far as possible, the complaints on violation of this Code shall be dealt without disclosing the name of the complainant. There shall not be any retaliation against any person who raises an ethics or compliance issue in good faith. All those who raise concerns or who help to resolve reported allegations shall be protected against retaliation. Any attempt to intimidate the whistleblower would be treated as a violation of the Code of Conduct and will be dealt with strictly.

14. PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF CODE

- 14.1. All Employees shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code, any Employee who violates the Code shall be subject to disciplinary action, as may be deemed fit by the Managing Director.
- 14.2. The action by the Corporation shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action for violation of the Regulations.
- 14.3. In case any material violation of the Regulations or the Code as may be decided by the Managing Director, is observed, SEBI shall be informed of the same.
- 14.4. Contra trade executed by any Employees, inadvertently or otherwise, without the relaxation of Compliance Officer, in violation of such a restriction, the profit from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI under the SEBI Act.

15. MODIFICATION TO CODE

- 15.1. This code may be modified by the Managing Director from time to time.
- 15.2. The Managing Director shall be bound to modify the code in accordance with recommendations, if any, of the Ethics Committee
- 15.3. The Employees shall abide by the Code prescribed by the Corporation, as amended from time to time.
