(II) any change between the following legal forms - individual, partnership firm, limited liability partnership firms, Hindu undivided family, private company, public company, unlimited company or statutory corporation and other similar changes;

(III) in case of a partnership firm any change in partners not amounting to dissolution of the firm;

(IV) any other change in relation to the Trading Members which may be specified by the relevant authority as amounting to a change in status or constitution.”

Explanation 2: In a case falling under para (I)(c) of Explanation I, or in any other case where the change in status or constitution requires the prior approval of SEBI or other authority, the Trading Member shall not carry out such change without obtaining such prior approval.

Explanation 3: A Trading Member shall apply for prior approval under Explanation 2 by following such procedure as may be specified by SEBI, other authority or the relevant authority.

- (cb) Without prejudice to other provisions of this Chapter, transfer of membership of the Exchange is permissible, subject to the following:
- i. A member of not less than three years’ standing who desires to resign, may transfer its membership to a person eligible under these Rules for admission to membership of the Exchange;

- ii. The legal representatives of a deceased member or his heirs may with the sanction of the relevant authority transfer the membership of the deceased member to any person eligible under these Rules for admission to membership of the Exchange as a candidate for admission in the places of the deceased member.
- iii. If a transferee be not eligible under these Rules or if a transferee be rejected by the relevant authority a fresh application for transfer of membership may be submitted to the Exchange.
- iv. (a) Any such transfer shall be effective only after obtaining prior approval of the relevant authority;
(b) The transferor shall make a written application duly signed by the transferor and containing the full name of and signed by the transferee;
(c) The application seeking prior approval shall be in such form as the relevant authority may from time to time prescribe.
- v. A transferee under this clause shall be admitted by the relevant authority only if he fulfills all eligibility requirements for becoming member of the Exchange and adheres to other requirements applicable to a member including the deposit requirements.
- vi. The relevant authority shall not approve a transfer unless the transferring member or in the case of a deceased member his legal representatives or heirs or any other person on his behalf shall have paid and satisfied in full:-
 - a) such subscriptions, debts, fines, fees, charges and other monies as shall have been determined by the relevant authority to be due to the Exchange or the Clearing Corporation by the transferring or deceased member.
 - b) such debts, liabilities, obligations and claims arising out of any contracts made by such member subject to the Rules, Bye-laws and Regulations of the Exchange as shall have been admitted by the relevant authority.]
- d) The relevant authority may permit the transfer of the certificate / entitlement slip in the following circumstances:
 - i. Death of a trading member;
 - ii. If in the opinion of the relevant authority, the trading member is rendered incompetent to carry on his business on the Stock Exchange on account of physical disability;

- iii. Upon amalgamation or merger of a trading member company;
 - iv. Upon takeover of a trading member company; and
 - v. Upon the death of or resignation or notice of dissolution by a partner of a trading member firm, and re-alignment, if any, by the partners in such firm or by the partners in such firm and the nominee(s)/successor(s) of the outgoing partner or by the partners in such firm and person(s) other than the nominee(s)/successor(s) of the outgoing partner in a new firm, within a period of six months from the date of such death or resignation or notice of dissolution.
 - vi. Upon transfer of his membership in compliance with clause 18(cb) of this Chapter.
- e) The relevant authority may, while permitting the transfer, prescribe from time to time such transfer fee as it deems fit in the following circumstances viz.,
- i. nomination by a trading member of a person other than successor(s) under the applicable laws;
 - ii. nomination by the successor(s) of a trading member, if the nominee(s) is/are not from amongst the successors;
 - iii. amalgamation or merger of a trading member company with a non-trading member company resulting in the loss of majority shareholding and/ or control of management by the majority shareholders of the trading member company;
 - iv. takeover of the trading member company by non-trading member(s) resulting in the loss of majority shareholding and/ or control of management by the majority shareholders of the trading member company; and
 - v. in the case of sub-clause (v) of clause (d), if the person(s) other than the nominee(s)/successor(s) of the outgoing partner hold atleast 51% of share in the profits & losses of the new firm and /or atleast 51% of share in the capital of the new firm.

Explanation I

For the purpose of sub-clauses (iii) and (iv) above, the term 'loss of majority shareholding' means a shareholder or a group of shareholders holding 51% or more shares/interest in the trading member company ceases to hold 51% of shares/interest in the trading member company or in the amalgamated company which shall take up trading membership upon amalgamation of the trading member company with a non-trading member company.

Explanation II

For the purpose of sub-clauses (iii) and (iv) above, the term ‘loss of control in management’ means the loss of the right to appoint majority of the directors or to control the management or policy decision exercisable by person or persons acting individually or in concert, directly or indirectly including by virtue of their shareholding or management rights or shareholders agreements or voting agreements or in any other manner.

- f) For the purpose of the clauses (b) to (e), the term ‘trading member’ shall to the extent applicable, include a partner of a trading member firm or a shareholder of a trading member company. The term successor(s) shall to the extent applicable, include successor(s) of a partner of a trading member firm or successor(s) of a shareholder of a trading member company
- g) Without prejudice to any other provision of the Rules, the trading membership may be suspended, for such period as the relevant authority may deem fit, in the following circumstances:
 - i. Upon the individual trading member or a partner of a trading member firm or a shareholder of a trading member company, in the opinion of the relevant authority, being rendered incompetent to carry on his business on account of physical disability;
 - ii. Upon the mental disability of the individual trading member or a partner of a trading member firm provided the partner holds atleast 51% of share in the profits & losses of and/or atleast 51% of share in the capital of such firm or a shareholder of a trading member company provided the shareholder is a majority shareholder in such trading member company;
 - iii. Upon the death of an individual trading member or a partner of a trading member firm provided the partner holds atleast 51% of share in the profits & losses of and / or atleast 51% of share in the capital of such firm or a shareholder of a trading member company, provided the shareholder is a majority shareholder in such trading member company and during the six month period within which successor(s) of such individual trading member or partner or shareholder, may nominate person(s) to take up the stake/shares of such deceased individual trading member or partner or shareholder;
 - iv. Upon the dissolution of a trading member firm and during the six month period as referred to in sub clause (v) of clause (d); and
 - v. Upon any deadlock in the management of a trading member firm or trading member company, which, in the opinion of the relevant authority will affect the ability of such trading member firm or trading member company to carry on its business. The trading member shall be entitled for an opportunity for representation before the relevant authority, before being suspended under this sub-clause, but the decision of the relevant authority shall be final.

Explanation I

For the purposes of this sub-clause, the term 'Deadlock in the Management' means a situation wherein there is a loss of confidence or disagreement among the partners of a trading member firm or among the directors/shareholders of a trading member company, which, in the opinion of the relevant authority, will affect or is likely to affect the conduct of business by the trading member firm or trading member company, as the case may be or an equality of vote at a meeting of the directors or shareholders of a trading member company.

- h) Without prejudice to any other provision of the Rules, the trading membership may be terminated by the relevant authority if an acceptable nomination or realignment, as the case may be, does not take place to the satisfaction of the relevant authority, within the said period of six months.
- i) The nominee(s), successor(s), partners of a trading member firm or such other persons, as the case may be shall be entitled for an opportunity for representation before the relevant authority, before being terminated under clause (h) above, but the decision of the relevant authority shall be final.

Conversion of legal status of the trading member

- j) Subject to such terms and conditions as the relevant authority may prescribe from time to time and to the prior written approval of the relevant authority, conversion of the legal status of a trading member may be effected as follows:
 - i. by conversion of an individual trading member into a partnership firm/company;
 - ii. by conversion of a Trading Member firm into a company.
- k) The relevant authority may permit the conversion of the legal status of the trading member in the following circumstances:
 - i. In the case of sub-clause (i) of clause (j), if the individual trading member holds and continues to hold atleast 51% of the share in the profits/losses and/or atleast 51% of share in the capital of the partnership firm, or atleast 51% of shareholding / interest in the company, which shall take up the trading membership of the Stock Exchange.
